Hard on Hanlan.

Hanlan has won a race. He yesterday defeated Trickett, the Australian exchampion, with great ease. It is only a few days since he was himself beaten by a comparatively new man, and the impression is that he could have won that race, but desired to lose and thus get heavy bets on the Trickett race, which he knew he could win. Since Hanlan gave himself up to that sort of thing decent Canadians have taken little interest in his races, whether he won or lost. Few will rejoice that he has beaten the Aus-Hawaii, about next Saturday, with sugar tralian under such circumstances .-[Montreal Witness.

THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY

Forty-fifth Day.

SATURDAY, July 21 The House met at 10 o'clock, the President, Hon. W. R. Castle, in the chair, Absent: Ministers Green and Austin, Nobles Wilder, Dowsett, Young, Jaeger, Townsend, Campbell, Widemann and Wilcox, Reps. Hustace, Kauhi, C. Brown, Horner, Wilcox and Nakaleka. Minutes read and confirmed

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES. Rep. F. Brown reported four bills printed.

Noble Robinson read a majority report of the Committee on Commerce on the bill relating to the cultivation of coffee.

Committee do not approve of the Government entering into the arrangement proposed in the bill. They think that the encouragement and revival of this slumbering industry will be best achieved by the Government giving a liberal bounty on pound of coffee raised for export. The bounty system has worked well in France and Germany, and was the means of keeping alive the beet sugar industry, so that it has become one of the greatest ndustries of those countries

The report is signed M. P. Robinson, J. Vight, F. Gay, A. P. Kalaukoa. Laid on the table to be considered with the minority report.

Noble Hitchcock read the report of the committee on the bill to better prevent the illicit traffic in spirituous liquors, recom-mending that the bill pass. Laid on the table to be considered with the bill.

The same Noble read a report of the same committee on the bill to amend Section 12 chapter XLIV of the Laws of 1882, relating to the sale of ales, wines, spirits and cordials. Committee submit a bill embodying the provisions of the one reported on, and also extending the same. Noble Smith presented the report of the special committee appointed July 2d, on the item in the Civil List, Household Expenses, $16,000. After consulting with the Chamberlain, committee recommend the item be inserted. Adopted.

NEW BILL. Minister Green read, a first time, a bill relating to Tax Assessors and Collectors, and the assessment and collection of taxes. COMMITTEE APPOINTED.

A special committee, consisting of the Minister of Interior, Noble Dole, Reps. Paris, Paehaole and Helekunihi, was appointed on Sections 12 and 13 of the Pounds and Estrays bill.

RESOLUTION.

Noble Hitchcock read the following: Whereas, There is at the present time a large amount of business in the hands of special committees, and it is necessary for the despatch of business, that such com-mittees should have time for making their reports on the business committed to them.

Therefore, be it Resolved, That during the next week, commencing with Monday, the 23d, and ending with Saturday, the 28th, the House shall meet for business at 1 p. m. each day. And that every special committee be di-rected to report to this House on the business committed to them during the coming week. Adopted.

MINISTER'S ANSWERS. Minister Thurston answered the ques tions of Rep. F. Brown, relating to Road yet got fairly into the traces, and in a number of districts there has been little or 14, 1888. Deputy Attorney-General for to give a final opinion on the working of details of making accounts and reports, return unanimous verdict of not guilty. but in almost every instance they are caused by a want of experience in those who have accepted this labor for the public good, and are of a nature that will soon correct themselves.

Instructions have been issued to the various Boards, which, it is expected, will systematize the returns from all the dis tricts. So far, complaints have been received by the Department against the Boards of but two districts, and these complaints are being properly investigated. Two of the Boards, viz.: for Kawaihat and Hanalei, Kauai, have had no money to work with, the funds having been previous ly exhausted. A number of the other dis-tricts have had but small amounts to do anything with, coming into operation, as they did, near the end of the biennial

The great majority of the Boards have taken hold of the work with genuine enthusiasm. During the brief period of five months since the appointment of the Boards, the roads in Hilo and North Hilo have been placed in far better order than they ever were in the years of work done

The trail running through the district has also been converted into a road over which a carriage can be driven from Hilo to Papaikou, and the work is being con tinued through the district. A stone crusher and road roller are following along the road, macadamizing the surface, so that a macadamized road through Hilo is not only a possibility but is in actual pro-

The new order of things has, however, accomplished as much, if not more, in North Hilo, which has for years borne the reputation of possessing the worst road in the Kingdom. A large number of stone crossings, bridges and culverts have been put in, and the grades of crossings at the steep guiches changed to an angle that will allow of travel and care of the road.

North Kohaia has also greatly benefited by the change. A road has been con-structed beyond Niulii, over which a brake can be driven, where nothing but a dilapidated trail existed before. The districts in which plantations are situated are better and more economically served than others, as the planters are willing to allow the use of their laborers cost price, while in the sparsely settled districts it is more difficult to get suitable men to serve on the Boards and labor is carce and high.

It is impossible to inaugurate a new system, acting through a large number of men, without there being some hitches and flaws at the outset. But the beginning is full of encouragement. By the next meet-ing of the Legislature the system will have so far developed its good and bad points that the changes, if any, which are neces-sary, can ther be made with better effect than can now be done.

The same Minister also answered the juestion of Rep. F. Brown, 19th inst., relative to amounts, estimates and appropriations of road moneys. The statement was ordered to be printed.

No Proper Jury Boom.

The best that can be had for a Supreme Court jury room, while the Legislature is in session, is a lobby off the Law Library. It is so exposed that every word of a juror, spoken above a whisper, may be heard in the main corridor. While legislators are cudgeling their brains for public improvements. here is a public want that might receive ome consideration. In 1886 two terms of Court were put out of house and home by the Legislature, and the same thing may happen again, if not this session. Should the new Judiciary bill pass, the Circuit Court of Oahu, holding ury terms in May and August, would almost certainly be sent upstairs twice during each legislative session. If the chamber of the First Associate Justice could be changed to an equally agreeable location, the room His Honor now occupies would make a convenient jury room, as well as be available, during hearings at Chambers, for enlarging the Court room, by means of folding doors. when a large number of witnesses and others in attendance uncomfortably crowded the place.
